Conductor:

Dr. Germán Augusto Gutiérrez,

Office:

MSC - 212
817-257-7654

Office hours:

Tuesday and Thursday
10:00 to 12:00 am or by appointment.

Rehearsal times:

Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday 3:30 to 5:20 PM

Final Exam & Other Important Dates:

Concert #1 date – xx/xx/2023
Concert #2 date – xx/xx/2023
Final exam date – xx/xx/2023

Method of Evaluation:

1. Being well prepared for each rehearsal
2. Attendance (see below)

Being well prepared for rehearsal means knowing your part (i.e. not learning your part during rehearsal) and being ready to learn how your part contributes to the ensemble. This will be assessed throughout the semester.

Attendance:

1. Each unexcused absence from a rehearsal will result in lowering the final grade by one. When possible, director must approve absences two weeks in advance. Verification from the Dean of Students is required for an absence to be excused.
2. Downbeat is at 3:30
Prompt attendance at every rehearsal is required. Two tardies equals one absence.
3. Wind, brass and percussion players must attend all rehearsals in which they are involved.

4. The weekly schedule of rehearsals will be sent by email. Students are responsible for consulting the daily rehearsal schedule with the orchestra conductor, or graduate assistant Offices in MSC 212 & 213.
5. Performances are equivalent of exams. Absence will result in a failing grade.

Grading Scheme

- A – Well prepared for all rehearsals, no unexcused absences from rehearsals
- B – Well prepared for all rehearsals, one unexcused absence from a rehearsal
- C – Well prepared for all rehearsals, two unexcused absences from rehearsals
- F – Well prepared for all rehearsals, three or more unexcused absences from rehearsals

OR

- F – Well prepared for all rehearsals, unexcused absence from a performance

Communication

Students will be notified of any changes in schedule via TCU E-MAIL ACCOUNTS. Reading your TCU e-mail is your responsibility, and failure to do so will not be considered allowed excuses.

An Orchestra Handbook will be provided along with this syllabus with more detail information about repertoire, concert dates, extra rehearsals and activities.

Hearing Health and Injury Prevention

The School of Music recognizes the importance of educating students about current musician health issues. As a part of their regular curricular study in the applied teaching studio, students and teachers will consider and discuss music-induced hearing loss and the prevention of performance related injuries. Students will also be made aware of the available professional resources to address these musician health issues by their instructor.

Class Norms & Netiquette

All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, discussions, and chats. If I deem any of them to be inappropriate or offensive, I will forward the message to the Chair of the department and appropriate action will be taken, not excluding expulsion from the course. The same rules apply online as they do in person. Be respectful of other students. Foul discourse will not be tolerated. Please take a moment and read some basic information about netiquette (<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/>).

Participating in the virtual realm, including social media sites and shared-access sites sometimes used for educational collaborations, should be done with honor and integrity. Please review the relevant sections of the Student Handbook (<https://deanofstudents.tcu.edu/student-handbook/>) for TCU's network and computing policies and communication guidelines.

Email

Only the official TCU student email address will be used for all course notification. It is your responsibility to check your TCU email on a regular basis.

Course Materials

TCU students are prohibited from sharing any portion of course materials (including videos, PowerPoint slides, assignments, or notes) with others, including on social media, without written permission by the course instructor. Accessing, copying, transporting (to another person or location), modifying, or destroying programs, records, or data belonging to TCU or another user without authorization, whether such data is in transit or storage, is prohibited. The full policy can be found at: <https://tcu.policytech.com/dotNet/documents/?docid=55&public=true>.

Violating this policy is considered a violation of Section 3.2.8 of the Student Code of Conduct found in the Student Handbook (<https://deanofstudents.tcu.edu/student-handbook/>), and may also constitute Academic Misconduct or Disruptive Classroom Behavior. TCU encourages student debate and discourse; accordingly, TCU generally interprets and applies its policies, including the policies referenced above, consistent with the values of free expression and First Amendment principles.

Academic Misconduct

Academic Misconduct (Section 3.4 of the Student Code of Conduct found in the Student Handbook (<https://deanofstudents.tcu.edu/student-handbook/>)): Any act that violates the academic integrity of the institution is considered academic misconduct. The definitions and procedures used to resolve suspected acts of academic misconduct are available in the offices of the Academic Deans and Dean of Students, and are also listed in detail in the Undergraduate Catalog (<http://tcu.smartcatalogiq.com/current/Undergraduate-Catalog/Student-Policies/Academic-Conduct-Policy-Details>) and the Graduate Catalog (<http://tcu.smartcatalogiq.com/en/current/Graduate-Catalog/Academic-Conduct>).

Specific examples include, but are not limited to:

- Cheating: Copying from another student's test paper, laboratory report, other report, or computer files and listings; using, during any academic exercise, material and/or devices not authorized by the person in charge of the test; collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test or laboratory without permission; knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in its entirety or in part, the contents of a test or other assignment unauthorized for release; substituting for another student or permitting another student to substitute for oneself.
- Plagiarism: The appropriation, theft, purchase or obtaining by any means another's work, and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of that work as one's own offered for credit. Appropriation includes the quoting or paraphrasing of another's work without giving proper credit. [If you are using Turnitin, place information about your course ID/password or state that items will be checked as part of the TCU Online assignment submission process. If you want to use Turnitin as a spot check, indicate that you may use Turnitin for plagiarism detection.]
- Collusion: The unauthorized collaboration with another in preparing work offered for credit.
- Abuse of resource materials: Mutilating, destroying, concealing, or stealing such material.

- Computer misuse: Unauthorized or illegal use of computer software or hardware through the TCU Computer Center or through any programs, terminals, or freestanding computers owned, leased or operated by TCU or any of its academic units for the purpose of affecting the academic standing of a student.
- Fabrication and falsification: Unauthorized alteration or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise. Falsification involves altering information for use in any academic exercise. Fabrication involves inventing or counterfeiting information for use in any academic exercise.
- Multiple submission: The submission by the same individual of substantial portions of the same academic work (including oral reports) for credit more than once in the same or another class without authorization.
- Complicity in academic misconduct: Helping another to commit an act of academic misconduct.
- Bearing false witness: Knowingly and falsely accusing another student of academic misconduct.

Getting Help with TCU Online

If you experience any technical problems while using TCU Online, please do not hesitate to contact the D2L HELP DESK. They can be reached by phone or chat 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.

Phone: 1-877-325-7778

Chat: Chat is available within TCU Online in the Help menu on the navigation bar.

If you are working with the helpdesk to resolve a technical issue, make sure to keep me updated on the troubleshooting progress.

If you have a course-related issue (course content, assignment troubles, quiz difficulties) please contact me.

Personal Settings & Notifications for TCU Online

As a student, you should set up your account settings, profile, and notifications. To do this you will login to TCU Online and select your name on the top right of the screen. You can upload a photo of yourself and add personal information to your profile. In the notifications area, you can add your phone number to receive text messages when grades are given, as well as reminder texts for upcoming assignments and quizzes.

[You can direct students to these settings and notification pages as they give students the option to take more responsibility for their learning and planning by setting up custom email and text alerts for upcoming assignments and quizzes. You do not need to put in an additional email address or phone number.]

Student Success Tools for TCU Online

Pulse

Pulse is a phone app which gives you access to the course calendar, assignments, grades, and announcements. This app provides a graph that can help you manage your time. Based on the number of assignments and events on the course calendar for your classes, the graph will display busy times for class work in the upcoming week. You can use this app to manage your daily workload, and it includes the ability to view and access course materials offline. You can download Pulse from the Google Play or Apple Store. You can learn more and download Pulse here: <https://www.d2l.com/products/pulse/>.

[Pulse is a management tool for students to easily access information about the course from a mobile device. For Pulse to work well with a class, you should use the calendar tool in TCU Online. It is very important to use the course calendar due date function for readings, assignments, quizzes, and discussions in order to help populate the calendar used in Pulse.]

ReadSpeaker

ReadSpeaker includes a number of tools that can enhance your understanding and comprehension of course materials. ReadSpeaker can create an audio version of content that you can listen to while on a page within a course or that you can download to listen offline. ReadSpeaker can also read Microsoft Office files and PDFs. There are additional tools and features to assist you with reading and focusing in TCU Online, tools that provide support for writing and proofing text, and tools that can read non-TCU Online content aloud. You can learn more about how to use ReadSpeaker tools here: <https://tcuonline.tcu.edu/how-to-hub/instructor-how-to-hub-for-tcu-online/integrations-and-mobile/readspeaker/>

ReadSpeaker is a support tool for students to access written content in an audio format, improve their focus while on TCU Online content pages, and help them write and edit content in other TCU Online tools. To help students get the most out of ReadSpeaker, you should be sure that any PDFs they upload are able to be read by ReadSpeaker. Many PDFs, especially those that have been scanned from books or journals by a photocopier, must be converted into searchable text to allow it to identify text and read the words. [Learn how to make your PDFs accessible to screen readers like ReadSpeaker for your students.]

TCU Policy for Religious Observations & Holidays

“Students who are unable to participate in a class, in any related assignment or in a university required activity because of the religious observance of a holy day shall be provided with a reasonable opportunity to make up the examination or assignment, without penalty, provided that it does not create an unreasonable burden on the University.” For more information, please visit the TCU Policy for Religious Observations & Holidays webpage.

Student Access and Accommodation

Texas Christian University affords students with disabilities reasonable accommodations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. To be eligible for disability-related academic accommodations, students are required to register with the TCU Office of Student Access and Accommodation and have their requested accommodations evaluated. If approved for accommodations, students are required to discuss their official TCU Notification of Accommodation with their instructors. Accommodations are not retroactive and require advance notice to implement. The Office of Student Access and Accommodation is located in The Harrison, Suite 1200. More information on how to apply for accommodations can be found at <https://www.tcu.edu/access-accommodation/> or by calling Student Access and Accommodation at (817) 257-6567.

Audio Recording Notification:

Audio recordings of class lectures may be permitted by the instructor or as an approved disability accommodation through Student Access and Accommodation. Recordings are not to be shared with other students, posted to any online forum, or otherwise disseminated.
